For immediate release

Meet us at the Festival de Plaisance, Cannes and get a back massage while you wait...

Yachting Pages is gearing up for fantastic boat show season and has several exciting announcements to make over the next few weeks.

For the first time Yachting Pages will be showcasing the skills and products of clients directly from the stand (RIV005), located in the Espace Riviera.

Bertrand Poncet Massage will set up their ergonomic massage chair and will be offering free taster massages to visitors. This select team of health and wellbeing experts have been providing Thai, Chinese, Shiatsu, Lymphatic Drainage and Cranio sacral massage, osteopathy/physiotherapy, yoga, pilates and personal training on superyachts since 1999 between St Tropez and Monaco. They now service yachts around the world and are willing to share their skills on the stand at Cannes this September.

It is reported that 580 yachts will be on display at this annual event, both in water and on land. An impressive 84% are travelling to the show in France from other countries including Italy, Germany, Spain, the Netherlands, Sweden, Turkey and the USA.

There will be 150 new models, 200 yachts over 20 metres and 22 yachts over 40 metres. Sailing yachts are well represented with 97 in attendance, including 29 multihulls.

Yachting Pages looks forward to meeting with industry contacts, partners and friends at this prestigious event running from 10th – 15th September 2013.
