Yachting Pages training academy gets off to a great start

Yachting Pages' newest recruits have passed their first level of accreditation at the Yachting Pages training academy.

Jennifer Spence and Jan Allen, who have both joined the company as account managers from a background in media, completed the comprehensive two-week training program today.

Covering the superyacht industry and the full portfolio of Yachting Pages Media Group of products, the ladies have passed the training with flying colours and received their graduation certificate from Steve Crowe, Managing Director of the company.

Jan Allen commented, "I thought the training was thorough and well presented, it has given me a great grounding in the superyacht industry."

Jennifer Spence commented, "The training was great I learnt some great tools to aid me in my work here at Yachting Pages."

Julia Budniak, sales and marketing manager said, "Due to our fantastic business growth we are delighted to welcome Jennifer Spence and Jan Allen to our team. I wish Jennifer and Jan all the success and a prosperous career with Yachting Pages and the Superyacht Owners' Guide. I am very pleased with the feedback I have received following their graduation from the Yachting Pages Academy."
